PFC Partners with USAID for ESG Workshop, Shaping a Sustainable Future

PFC's Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) Unit took a significant step towards fostering sustainability and awareness by organizing a workshop on "ESG and Materiality Assessment." This pivotal event, held on April 3rd and 4th, 2024, marked a collaborative effort with the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) under the Sustainable Adoption and Resilient Economic Program (SAREP) initiative.

The workshop brought together approximately 50 employees on April 3rd and engaged Executive Directors and House members on April 4th. At the helm of this enlightening session was Shri V.S. Bhaskar, a distinguished ESG expert renowned for his expertise in the field. His presence not only added credibility but also ensured a comprehensive understanding of ESG principles and materiality assessment.

The first day of the workshop, on April 3rd, was a vibrant platform for employees across various departments to delve into the nuances of ESG practices. Through interactive sessions, case studies, and discussions, participants gained insights into the significance of ESG factors in corporate decision-making, risk management, and stakeholder engagement. Shri V.S. Bhaskar's wealth of experience and engaging presentation style captivated the audience, fostering a dynamic learning environment.

Building on the momentum from the first day, April 4th witnessed the participation of Executive Directors and House members, emphasizing PFC's top-down commitment to sustainability and responsible business practices. The session provided a deeper dive into ESG materiality assessment, exploring frameworks, methodologies, and best practices for identifying and prioritizing key ESG issues relevant to PFC's business operations.

This workshop underscores PFC's steadfast commitment to sustainability and ESG integration across all facets of its operations. By fostering a culture of awareness and understanding, PFC aims to not only mitigate risks but also seize opportunities for value creation and long-term resilience.

With the knowledge and insights gained from this workshop, PFC is poised to chart a course towards a more sustainable, inclusive, and prosperous tomorrow.
